9:00 – 10:00 am – Chaos to Calm: Building Resilience in the Classroom

Presenter: Teri Kelly PT, DPT, MS ED – Student Wellness Specialist

As educators we know that we can't optimally teach, and children can't optimally learn, if we are stressed. To manage these challenges, wellness practices to build resilience and restore emotional balance in the classroom, are being embraced by educators globally. In this workshop, the participants will explore resilience-building activities such as mindfulness and self awareness practices to promote staff and student wellness. In addition, participants will engage in various forms of wellness activities to promote health including: breathing,, energy shifting movements, and a tuning in / stillness practice.
