

Name: _____ Date: _____

Prioritize Home Problems

Prioritize the following home situations from most important (it needs to be addressed right away) to least important (it can wait to be addressed) by numbering each from 1 (most important) to 7 (least important). Discuss these problems with others (parents, teachers, family members, friends). See if you all agree. If you don't agree, then calmly discuss why you each prioritized differently.

_____ Your television is broken

_____ Your internet connection is not working

_____ Your smoke detector is broken

_____ Your washing machine is broken

_____ You have no hot water

_____ Your dishwasher is not working

_____ Your shirt has a stain on it

