

Guidance for Restarting Medicaid/NJ FamilyCare Eligibility Reviews

The Family Institute wants to give you and your family guidance on how to maintain health insurance coverage now that Medicaid/NJ FamilyCare beneficiary eligibility renewals are restarting.

Medicaid/NJ FamilyCare is dedicated to ensuring continuous coverage for all beneficiaries. Following the pause on Medicaid/NJ FamilyCare eligibility renewals during the public health emergency, renewals are now being reinstated. Between April 1, 2023 and March 31, 2024, Medicaid/NJ FamilyCare will initiate renewal processes by mailing notifications to all members within this timeframe. Subsequently, members should anticipate an annual renewal requirement going forward.

There is an exception to the requirement that everyone who has NJ FamilyCare/Medicaid will have to do a Medicaid redetermination: Individuals who currently receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and Medicaid will not receive a Medicaid redetermination application. However, it is possible that individuals who receive SSI could receive a redetermination notice from Social Security. Therefore, it is important to respond promptly if Social Security sends a letter requiring a redetermination.
