

NAVIGATING THE TRANSITION TO ADULT SERVICES

Join us for the empowering knowledge you need to navigate the transition from K-12 to adult services and the Division of Development Disabilities (DDD) system.

TOPIC HIGHLIGHTS:

- Understanding guardianship
- Service Recipient and Parent/Guardian rights
- What is the DDD, and how does it work?
- Expertise and guidance applicable to anyone within the process

April 18, 2024

Support Coordination Agency Fair: 6:30 PM
Guest Speaker: 7:00 PM

Second Home Day Habilitation Center

515 Union Boulevard, Suite 2
Totowa, NJ 07512

OUR SPEAKER

LISA MCCAULEY PARLES, ESQ.

Parles Rekem, LLP

Lisa McCauley Parles, Esq., is a partner in the Clark, New Jersey law firm Parles Rekem, LLP, and the parent of a 33-year-old son with autism. Her practice focuses on representing individuals with disabilities and their families in the areas of early intervention, special education, transition, and adult services, residential placements, reasonable accommodations, insurance coverage, and guardianships. Lisa has been in private practice for over 30 years and has an extensive presentation history. She is a frequent lecturer and has appeared in numerous television and radio broadcasts, including Nightline and ABC World News Tonight. She has participated as a panelist and moderator for numerous continuing legal education seminars and has published a number of articles in peer-reviewed journals and bar association publications.

View Lisa McCauley Parles, Esq.'s Full Bio Here

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

Contact
551-500-3616

Website
nresc.org

